Privacy notice - access to personal data

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. The processing of personal data is governed by the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA), under which the Ministry of Justice (MoJ) is registered as a data controller. The Legal Aid Agency is an executive agency within the MoJ. The Legal Aid Agency processes personal data in order to provide legal aid services.

The MoJ complies with its obligations under the DPA by keeping the personal data we hold up to date; storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure; and ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect the personal data we process in line with Her Majesty's Government standards.

You have the right to request details about the personal information we hold about you; and subsequently request that we correct any personal information if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date.

In order to fulfil its functions the MoJ may share personal data with other organisations. These organisations include other government departments, local authorities and private or voluntary sector organisations engaged to deliver services. Personal data is only shared outside the MoJ when the law allows.

To request a copy of your personal information please refer to the MoJ website for further details on how you may do this.
